

JUNE 2012: B & M Theocharakis Foundation for the Fine Arts and Music, in collaboration with the Japanese Embassy in Greece, present for the first time in Athens the unique exhibition “WINTER GARDEN: JAPANESE MICROPOP” featuring drawings, paintings and videos by 14 contemporary Japanese artists.

In the framework of the exhibition were scheduled parallel events, such as workshops (sushi, japanese tea, japanese sweets, ikebana), as well as film screenings.

Mrs Joanna Barczyk, was invited by Mrs Mayo Nishike, Cultural Attaché of the Japanese Embassy, to conduct an Ikebana lecture and workshop.

June 14th, 2012: Official opening and reception

Mr. B.Theocharakis welcomes the honourable guests and the public with a speech

June 26th, 2012: Ikebana lecture and Ikebana workshop for 30 Athenians

Lecture

Demonstration

Ikebana workshop

Ikebana workshop

Corrections

*Part of the group.
In front line, second from right:
Cultural Attaché, Mrs Mayo Nishike*

